This Is My God on Apple Books As I would expect, "This Is My God" is "warm and conversational": the very accolade of "greatest style" he accords the great Talmudic scholar, Rashi (p. 315). In some ways this book does for Judaism what C. S. Lewis attempted in his radio lectures, compiled as "Mere Christianity"

only without any intellectual sacrifices but much to his enrichment. What is a "formidable intellectual position"? Belief in God. This is My God Flashcards | Quizlet Each time we speak the ancient words of the Avot, we are, in effect, pledging that we will add our own life stories to the story of God. And so, "This is my God" is a summation of my own life stories, my studies and struggles that have led to a vision of God that inspires me to work for a better and nobler society. I do not piously pray for healing, but rather for the strength to deal with pain and the will to aid the sick.
